

“A PILGRIMAGE TO HOME” COLLAGE. WAX. MIXED MEDIA November 18

A Pilgrimage is a journey, a search for moral or spiritual significance...

In this metaphorical journey we will explore ideas and beliefs about our personal meaning of home.

Reflecting on the meaning of “home”, students will create an artwork on panel with using collected images, using pastel, oil stick, colored pencil, hot wax layers and other media.

Skills + Techniques: Altering paper, “Excellence in Gluing”, color expression, composition.

Open to all levels.

Students should bring:

- Found papers,
- Photo copies or photos,
- Images for collage
- Favorite media or tools
- Personal writings/journals

Date: November 18

Time: 11am - 4pm

Cost: $225, Materials included

To Register: Call: (505) 989-3283 or

Email: MEHRENS@EAINM.COM

EAINM.com

“Art is our voice. As a teacher, I want to encourage and inspire artists to know their voice through the act of art making.”

Catherine presents concise information in a safe, lighthearted atmosphere. She has taught art classes across the US for more than 20 years.

Catherine Trapani TRAPANISTUDIO.COM