

ARTsmart Student Work Featured at the
MUSEUM OF ENCAUSTIC ART
NATIONAL JURIED EXHIBIT GLOBAL WARMING IS REAL

Reception: Saturday September 21 noon - 4 PM

ARTsmart is a 501c3 nonprofit that was founded in 1993 and provides visual arts to more than 9,000 youths annually in Northern New Mexico. ARTsmart provides art materials and year-round visual arts instruction for elementary through high school students. ARTsmart's mission is to serve our communities by providing educational opportunities in the arts that promote confidence, self-discovery, and creative problem-solving skills.

Please join us from noon to 4 pm Saturday, Sept 21 at the Museum of Encaustic Art for the third annual national juried exhibit Global Warming is REAL. Works of encaustic art (wax media) with the theme "What We Love about the Earth" made by ARTsmart students will be featured and on display until October 27th. ARTsmart thanks MoEA and Douglas Mehrens for facilitating and instructing the students at the Museum of Encaustic Art.

When: Reception is Saturday, September 21 noon to 4 pm

The show hangs until October 27, 2019

Where: The Museum of Encaustic Art, 632 Agua Fria, Santa Fe

Tickets: Opening - FREE to the public. Daily admission to the Museum is $10, but viewing the ARTsmart children's work is FREE - just mention it at the front desk.
