This workshop is offered in conjunction with the 2020 International Art Conference put on by the Encaustic Art Institute (EAI) and the Museum of Encaustic Art (MoEA) in Santa Fe, NM. The Conference will be held on Sept 23-26. For info on the conference, and registration link, click here. To register for this workshop, click here.

This workshop is ideal for artists, photographers and those looking for a unique way to utilize photos with their creative side. Get hands-on experience using historic imagery, your own photographs or royalty free pictures with encaustic wax and mixed media to create original artwork. Learn everything you need to know about equipment, suppliers and essential materials necessary to economically set-up your own photo-encaustic studio. Experience a new variety of painting processes while applying layers of encaustic medium to images that turn them into works of art. Your instructor, Angel Wynn, is a long time professional photographer, encaustic artist and gallery owner. The day will be spent using photos with wax as an alternative means to create multiple layers of translucent dream-like imagery. A variety of photo papers will be on display that work best with encaustic wax. You will learn how to apply the best glues, texture adding tools, mixing colorful pigments, antiquing, hand coloring, exotic papers and usable textiles. Angel will discuss the necessary equipment to economically set-up your own studio and get a quick start creating encaustic art, no matter the size of your working space. This creative workshop is guaranteed to bring out your enthusiasm and inspire you to continue utilizing photography with your art well after the conference is over. Angel will demonstrate all the processes that she has developed to utilize hot wax along with an assortment of mixed-media to enhance and take photographs to an extraordinary new level. Each participant will receive a three-page handout that covers essential information, vendors, information sites along with a supply list. All materials are included. Bring 4-6 of your own photographs OR choose from an assortment of images available during the workshop.
