

UPDATE:
COVID-19
& EAI * MoEA

Dear Friends,

The Museum of Encaustic Art and the Encaustic Art Institute here in Santa Fe, NM remains CLOSED until further notice.

Adult and Children's workshops: CLOSED until further notice. If you have applied/paid for a workshop and are unable to attend because of the COVID-19 situation, you will be given a full refund.

The following is a list of the endeavors we have in process and what the outlook is:

2020: New Beginnings Exhibition: Call for Art is now closed. Stay tuned for the artists who were juried in to this exhibition. This event will be an online exhibition on our website, with the ability to purchase work online.

4th Annual Global Warming is REAL Exhibition: Call for Art March 14 – May 3rd. We will be providing all work juried in this exhibition on our website, with the ability to purchase work online. The opening is scheduled June 27th. We will move forward with this event, unless we are mandated to remain closed. Click here to apply.

Encaustic Arts Magazine: June 1 issue is in full swing. There will be no interruption in the online magazine being published. Click here for samples of past issues.

International Art Conference: Sept. 23 – Sept. 26 Plus pre and post workshops. We will not be canceling the Conference and workshops, unless the local and state center for disease control and prevention mandates the closing of venues such as the Santa Fe Lodge where the conference/workshops are located. We will refund the conference/workshop fee for any reason related to the COVID-19 situation. We of course will keep you posted. Click here for more info on conference/workshops.

DONATIONS: If you are in a place to make a contribution to our non-profit, and help us help artists across the country – please click here. Your donation will help us ride this wave of uncertainty with more grace and ease, and allow us to continue to serve artists and patrons to the best of our ability.

Take time to enjoy the creativity that abounds. All my best your way, and thank you for all the support.
