

DEBORAH LLEWELLYN (GA)

Into the Vortex, encaustic, shellac, pigment, on wood panel, 36 x 36 inches

Encaustic with oils, pigments, and deep shellac burns creating movement like water.

The rising seawater levels are real and happening quickly. My paintings are about the swirling, thrashing, movement of water.

Artist Statement
Deborah Llewellyn