

MARGARET WELLS (OR)

Northern California Forest Fire, encaustic, cold wax, collage, 11 x 14 inches

An increase in forest fires, brought about by Global Warming, has destroyed many thousands of acres in the west in the past few years, not only in the wild but complete towns such as Paradise, California. That destruction inspired my artwork.

Artist Statement
Margaret Wells